

7th Grade Summer Reading
D. LeBlanc

Name _____

Book: Fever 1793 by Laurie Halse Anderson

Students will receive two summer reading test grades. Students will write a summary notecards every 10 pages for a test grade on the novel, Fever 1793. Students will be allowed to use their summary notecards on the multiple choice summer reading test that will be given at the beginning of school in the fall.

Required            3x5 notecards
Materials:        Rubber band or notecard holder

Assignment:       1 title card, 1 author card, 1 setting card, varying number of character cards, varying number of plot cards

On every card, put your name of top, left-hand corner. In top, right hand corner, label card with words "title, author, character or plot" On character and plot cards, you will also number them. For example, Character 1, Plot 4, etc. In addition, on plot cards, you will also put the page numbers being summarized under the label such as
Plot 1
Pages 1-10

Title Card:        Label correctly at top and then write title of book in bold letters centered in the middle of the card. Be sure to underline the title of the book

Author Card       Label correctly at the top and then write information about the author on the card.

Setting Card       Label correctly at the top and then write when and where the majority of the book takes place

Character Cards:    Label correctly at top. Do a character card for most characters. If a character is only mentioned once or twice, you do not have to do a card on them. On each character card, write the character's name and a description of the character. This description could include physical characteristics as well as personality traits.

Plot Cards: Label correctly at the top. These are the most important cards you will do, and it is extremely important that you do them as instructed. In order to be effective, plot cards must be done as you read, not after you read. So, while you are reading, you need to stop every 10 pages and on 1 notecard summarize what you have read. Remember, summarize means to put in your own words. Remember summarize means to put it in your own words. Do not just copy word-for-word from the book. In your own words, as if you are telling your friend about a movie you have seen, explain what has happened on the 10 pages you are summarizing. The number of plot cards will vary depending on what edition of the book you have.

8th Grade Summer Reading
D. LeBlanc

Name _____

Book: The Cage by Ruth Minsky Sender

Students will receive two summer reading test grades. Students will write a summary notecards every 10 pages for a test grade on the novel, The Cage. Students will be allowed to use their summary notecards on the multiple choice summer reading test that will be given at the beginning of school in the fall.

Required        3x5 notecards
Materials:      Rubber band or notecard holder

Assignment:    1 title card, 1 author card, 1 setting card, varying number of character cards, varying number of plot cards

On every card, put your name of top, left-hand corner. In top, right hand corner, label card with words "title, author, character or plot" On character and plot cards, you will also number them. For example, Character 1, Plot 4, etc. In addition, on plot cards, you will also put the page numbers being summarized under the label such as
Plot 1
Pages 1-10

Title Card:                      Label correctly at top and then write title of book in bold letters centered in the middle of the card. Be sure to underline the title of the book

Author Card                      Label correctly at the top and then write information about the author on the card.

Setting Card                      Label correctly at the top and then write when and where the majority of the book takes place

Character Cards:                      Label correctly at top. Do a character card for most characters. If a character is only mentioned once or twice, you do not have to do a card on them. On each character card, write the character's name and a description of the character. This description could include physical characteristics as well as personality traits.

Plot Cards: Label correctly at the top. These are the most important cards you will do, and it is extremely important that you do them as instructed. In order to be effective, plot cards must be done as you read, not after you read. So, while you are reading, you need to stop every 10 pages and on 1 notecard summarize what you have read. Remember, summarize means to put in your own words. Remember summarize means to put it in your own words. Do not just copy word-for-word from the book. In your own words, as if you are telling your friend about a movie you have seen, explain what has happened on the 10 pages you are summarizing. The number of plot cards will vary depending on what edition of the book you have.

9th Grade Summer Reading

Book: The Alchemist by Paulo Coelho

ISBN#: 9780062315007

Required Material: 3x5 notecards

Black Pen

1 Rubber Band

Assignment: 1 title card, 1 author card, 1 setting card, varying number of character cards, varying number of plot cards.

On every card, put your name on top, right-hand corner. In top, left-hand corner, label card with the word “title, author, character or plot, etc.” On character and plot cards, you will also number them. For example, Character 1, Plot 4, etc. In addition, on plot cards, you will also put the page numbers being summarized under the label, such as Plot 3.

Title	John Smith
The Alchemist

Plot 1, 2,3 etc	John Smith
Pgs. 112-121

Title Card: Label correctly at top and then write title of book in bold letters centered in the middle of the card, be sure to underline the title of books.

Author Card: Label correctly at the top and then write information about the author on the card.

Setting Card: Label correctly at top and then write when and where the majority of the book takes place.

Character Cards: Label correctly at top. Do a character card for most characters. If a character is only mentioned once or twice, you do not have to do a card on them. On each character card, you will write the character's name and a description of the character. This description could include physical characteristics as well as personality traits. The card must be completely filled.

Plot Cards:

Label correctly at top. These are the most important cards you will do, and it is extremely important that you do them as I instruct you to. DO NOT WAIT UNTIL YOU HAVE READ THE ENTIRE BOOK TO DO PLOT CARDS. In order to be effective, plot cards must be done as you read, not after you read. So, while you are reading, you need to stop after about every 5 pages and on 1 card, summarize what you have just read. Remember, summarize means to put it in your own words. DO NOT just copy word-for-word from the book. In your own words, as if you were telling a friend about a movie you have just seen, explain what has happened on the 5 pages you are summarizing. Remember, when writing about literature, write in the present tense.

Turn Them In:

You will put your notecards in order as listed above: (1) title card, (2) author card, (3) setting card, (4) character, and then, (5) plot cards. Put one rubber band around them all, and TURN THEM IN ON THE FIRST FULL DAY OF SCHOOL. The benefit of doing notecards, if done correctly, is that if you read your book at the beginning of the summer, you can just read over your notecards before school starts in order to review for your test.

Contact Info: If you have any questions, feel free to email me at elellis.ba@gmail.com.

Look forward to working with you next year!

Have a great summer!

Mrs. Stewart

10th Grade Summer Reading

Book: To Kill a Mockingbird by Harper Lee

Required Materials: 3 x 5 notecards
Black ink pen
1 rubber band

Assignment: 1 title card, 1 author card, 1 setting card, varying number of character cards, varying number of plot cards

On every card, put your name on top, left-hand corner. In top, right-hand corner, label card with the words "title, author, character or plot." On character and plot cards, you will also number them. For example, Character 1, Plot 4, etc. In addition, on plot cards, you will also put the page numbers being summarized under the label, such as Plot 3
Pgs. 112-121

Title Card: Label correctly at top and then write title of book in bold letters centered in the middle of the card. Be sure to underline the title of books.

Author Card: Label correctly at top and then write information about the author on the card.

Setting Card: Label correctly at top and then write when and where the majority of the book takes place.

Character Cards: Label correctly at top. Do a character card for most characters. If a character is only mentioned once or twice, you do not have to do a card on them. On each character card, you will write the character's name and a description of the character. This description could include physical characteristics as well as personality traits.

Plot Cards: Label correctly at top. These are the most important cards you will do, and it is extremely important that you do them as I instruct you to. Do not wait until you have read the entire book to do Plot Cards. In order to be effective, plot cards must be done as you read, not after you read. So, while you are reading, you need to stop after about every 10 pages, and on 1 card, summarize what you have just read. Remember, summarize means to put it in your own words. DO NOT just copy word-for-word from the book. In your own words, as if you were telling a friend about a movie you have just seen, explain what has happened on the 10 pages you are summarizing. Remember, when writing about literature, write in the present tense. The number of plot cards you will have will vary depending on what edition of the book you have.

Turning Them In: You will put your notecards in order as listed above: title card, author card, setting card, character cards, and then, plot cards. Put one rubber band around them all, and turn them in on the first full day of school. We will also take a test on the book on the second full day of school. The benefit of doing notecards, if done correctly, is that if you read your book at the beginning of the summer, you can just read over your notecards before school starts in order to review for your test.

Contact Info.: If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at 601-320-1951 or email me at dculbertson\_BA@yahoo.com

I look forward to working with you all next year. Have a safe, fun, and "reading-filled" summer!

11th Grade Summer Reading

Book: The Great Gatsby by F. Scott Fitzgerald

Required Materials: 3 x 5 notecards
Black ink pen
1 rubber band

Assignment: 1 title card, 1 author card, 1 setting card, varying number of character cards, varying number of plot cards

On every card, put your name on top, left-hand corner. In top, right-hand corner, label card with the words "title, author, character or plot." On character and plot cards, you will also number them. For example, Character 1, Plot 4, etc. In addition, on plot cards, you will also put the page numbers being summarized under the label, such as Plot 3
Pgs. 112-117

Title Card: Label correctly at top and then write title of book in bold letters centered in the middle of the card. Be sure to underline the title of books.

Author Card: Label correctly at top and then write information about the author on the card.

Setting Card: Label correctly at top and then write when and where the majority of the book takes place.

Character Cards: Label correctly at top. Do a character card for most characters. If a character is only mentioned once or twice, you do not have to do a card on them. On each character card, you will write the character's name and a description of the character. This description could include physical characteristics as well as personality traits.

Plot Cards: Label correctly at top. These are the most important cards you will do, and it is extremely important that you do them as I instruct you to. Do not wait until you have read the entire book to do Plot Cards. In order to be effective, plot cards must be done as you read, not after you read. So, while you are reading, you need to stop after about every 4-5 pages, and on 1 card, summarize what you have just read. Remember, summarize means to put it in your own words. DO NOT just copy word-for-word from the book. In your own words, as if you were telling a friend about a movie you have just seen, explain what has happened on the 4-5 pages you are summarizing. The number of plot cards you will have will vary depending on what edition of the book you have.

Turning Them In: You will put your notecards in order as listed above: title card, author card, setting card, character cards, and then, plot cards. Put one rubber band around them all, and turn them in on the first full day of school. We will also take a test on the book on the second full day of school. The benefit of doing notecards, if done correctly, is that if you read your book at the beginning of the summer, you can just read over your notecards before school starts in order to review for your test.

Contact Info.: If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at 601-320-1951 or email me at dculbertson\_BA@yahoo.com

I look forward to working with you all next year. Have a safe, fun, and "reading-filled" summer!

**Students who have been in my class before will actually type each of their "cards" as separate paragraphs of 50-100 words each, all in one document, and we will submit it to Turnitin.com after the first day of school. Be sure to type your "notecards" document in Microsoft Word (or in a pdf file) and SAVE it!

12th Grade Summer Reading

Book: Jane Eyre by Charlotte Brontë

Required Materials: 3 x 5 notecards
Black ink pen
1 rubber band

Assignment: 1 title card, 1 author card, 1 setting card, varying number of character cards, varying number of plot cards

On every card, put your name on top, left-hand corner. In top, right-hand corner, label card with the words "title, author, character or plot." On character and plot cards, you will also number them. For example, Character 1, Plot 4, etc. In addition, on plot cards, you will also put the page numbers being summarized under the label, such as Plot 3
Pgs. 112-121

Title Card: Label correctly at top and then write title of book in bold letters centered in the middle of the card. Be sure to underline the title of books.

Author Card: Label correctly at top and then write information about the author on the card.

Setting Card: Label correctly at top and then write when and where the majority of the book takes place.

Character Cards: Label correctly at top. Do a character card for most characters. If a character is only mentioned once or twice, you do not have to do a card on them. On each character card, you will write the character's name and a description of the character. This description could include physical characteristics as well as personality traits.

Plot Cards: Label correctly at top. These are the most important cards you will do, and it is extremely important that you do them as I instruct you to. Do not wait until you have read the entire book to do Plot Cards. In order to be effective, plot cards must be done as you read, not after you read. So, while you are reading, you need to stop after about every 10 pages, and on 1 card, summarize what you have just read. Remember, summarize means to put it in your own words. DO NOT just copy word-for-word from the book. In your own words, as if you were telling a friend about a movie you have just seen, explain what has happened on the 10 pages you are summarizing. Remember, when writing about literature, write in the present tense. The number of plot cards you will have will vary depending on what edition of the book you have.

Turning Them In: You will put your notecards in order as listed above: title card, author card, setting card, character cards, and then, plot cards. Put one rubber band around them all, and turn them in on the first full day of school. We will also take a test on the book on the second full day of school. The benefit of doing notecards, if done correctly, is that if you read your book at the beginning of the summer, you can just read over your notecards before school starts in order to review for your test.

Contact Info.: If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at 601-320-1951 or email me at dculbertson\_BA@yahoo.com

I look forward to working with you all next year. Have a safe, fun, and "reading-filled" summer!

**Students who have been in my class before will actually type each of their "cards" as separate paragraphs of 50-100 words each, all in one document, and we will submit it to Turnitin.com after the first day of school. Be sure to type your "notecards" document in Microsoft Word (or in a pdf file) and SAVE it!